his seems to be the month for changes. Every major change brings anxiety and the need for transition, but we hope that you will join us in moving the station toward becoming the major institution for social change that it has been in the past.

First, program coordinator, Pamela Burton has left KPFK to return to graduate school. She is the first Pacifica person to receive an associate fellowship at Ohio University where she will participate in a speacial program for public telecommunications managers. We are thrilled that Pam was selected. Pam came to the station as a part time subscriptions assistant as her way of contributing to her favorite radio station while managing a family business, the Sunshine Garden Cafe, in Glendale. As fate would have it, she arrived at a time of intense conflict and disorganization. Pam, with no radio experience but lots of dedication and common sense, walked in to the vacuum and made sure that critical work got done. Pam was everywhere in the station, on-the-air, and out in the community taping speeches and lectures. Thanks, Pam. We'll miss you

As you know, we have been searching for a new general manager for KPFK for several months. At this uriting, we have extended the search a few weeks to allow the new board members to have input into the process. We hope to have a new manager by the time you read this Folio.

Wendy White, Ron Wilkins and Ricardo Zelada, It's no secret that there have been enormous conflicts hetween the station board and management, between the station board and the national board. We welcome the new members of the station board and look forward to working in harmony with them.

One of the first tasks the new general manager will have is to hire a new program director. KPFK has not had a management level program director for many years. To fill in until we do get a program director, we are very pleased to welcome Wendy White to the staff as interim program coordinator, replacing Pam Burton. Wendy has 12 years of radio programming experience, including a stint in the KPFK newsroom and being the original producer of "Talking Book," a children's program about Africa and African American literature, and co-producer of "Continent to Continent," a biweekly magazine about issues in Africa and the Caribbean as well as issues affecting African Americans. Wendy will take a leave of absense from the station board to join us on the staff through the end of the calendar year.

And, finally, after six years in the "hot seat," I have decided to leave my position as CEO of Pacifica Radio, effective December 31, 1986. We have succeeded in the two primary goals for my tenure at Pacifica:

- 1) Retire the nearly $1 million old debt and have organizational structures, financial systems and plans for Pacifica's long range future.
- 2) Having a leadership that reflects the diversity and the quality of excellence that Pacifica Radio airwayes have exhibited in the bast. When I came to Pacifica, we were still a White male organization. Today, the national board is majority women and people of color; the management staff is overwhelmingly women and majority women of color, and we continue to grow among the station board, staff, programmers and volunteers.

These past six years have been filled with many rewarding and wonderful experiences...and many moments of intense frustration and conflict. I feel confident that the current structure and leadership will continue to "put Pacifica on the map" as it continues to be the voice for justice and peace in the world. As for me, I will be working on the grassroots campaign of Warren Furutani, running for the board of education in Los Angeles' 7th District, then I will return to my home in Seattle and set up a base for free lance media consultation...with a focus in international communications. If all voes well, I will be back in Mozambique and Zimbabwe by this time next year. Hook forward to continuing to work with Pacifica as I try to help open up means of distribution of Third World information to the U.S.A. In the next four months, I have no intention of being a lame duck...there's still lots of work to be done and I look forward to working with the new KPFK station manager and board people before I leave.

"A DELECTABLE COMEDY.

WITTY AND WINNING...abounding in lively incidents and wicked little jabs at men's stock attitudes about women." -Walter Goodman, VILLAGE VOICE

"A ZANY COMEDY and affectionate poke at the opposite sex by West German Doris Dorrie... her films have the cheeky sophistication of Ernst Lubitsch, updated to accomodate the sexual anxiety of the 80's."—Molly Haskell,

"A TRUMPH FOR BOTH SEXES. Everyone comes out a winner. Funny...freshly written and directed." -Jami Bernard, NEW YORK POST
